The Washington Merry-Go-Round

PAY THE POOR ROOSEVELT-BASTERS WHO WENT INTO EXILE IN BRITISH-BALANCE-IN-PASSIVE NEW DEAL—NOW THEY'RE AT WAR; THEIR NEW GOVERNMENT CONFRONTS SECURITIES, MAY BE THE foto FOR FRONTS; TOM CONVERSE, FAMOUS, NOW A BRITISH CITIZEN, WAS WEDDING AT THIS WEEK.

THE SCOTTISH GARDENERS ASSEMBLED TO CELEBRATE THE BIRTHDAY OF ROBERT LOUIS STEVENSON, WARING A LADY'S STRAW HAT, AND A ROYAL SCOTTISH JACQUARD TARTAN; AT A FORMAL GARDEN PARTY THEY WERE IDEAL.

THE STORY OF DOROTHY DANDRIDGE

Dorothy Dandridge had a dream, to be the first Negro to play an important role in a major motion picture. She had the talent, the beauty, the drive, but she was also a product of her time, a woman who had to struggle to be accepted in an industry that was not yet ready for her. Her story is one of triumph and struggle, of success and failure, of love and heartbreak.

Farley Will Oppose Mr. Roosevelt

Mr. Farley, a vigorous opponent of Mr. Roosevelt in the forthcoming Presidential campaign, has decided to run for Congress in his own state. He is a strong advocate of lower taxes and an opponent of the New Deal practices that have contributed to the current economic problems. His campaign promises to focus on the needs of the average American family and the need for meaningful reform.

Love Brings Grief to Russell

Russell, a young man from a small town, was in love with a beautiful woman named Mary. They had a whirlwind romance filled with passion and adventure, but their happiness was short-lived. Mary's family disapproved of Russell, and they urged her to marry someone else. Despite their objections, Mary went through with the wedding, but her love for Russell continued to grow stronger.

Skunk Goes to Church

As the sun rose on a peaceful morning, the skunk awoke from his slumber. He stretched his body and looked around, feeling the warmth of the sun on his fur. He was feeling particularly adventurous that day, and decided to explore the world around him. He set out on his journey, his small body moving with grace and ease.

Happy Four-H: Boys' Holiday Meet

The New York Boys' Holiday Meet was held in the beautiful city of Ogdensburg. It was a day filled with excitement and fun, as young boys gathered to participate in various activities and events. The day began with a parade, where boys of all ages marched down the streets, waving flags and shouting cheers.

Canadians to See Film

Canadian-born actor W. S. Pinkie was featured in a film that had recently been released. He portrayed a character named Captain George R. W. Burns, a man known for his bravery and dedication to his country. The film was well-received, and many people came to see it.

HARMON SPEAKS AT CANTON ON FRIDAY, MAR. 15

Dr. Robert E. Harmon, a prominent leader in the field of medicine, was scheduled to speak at a conference in Canton. His insights and expertise were highly anticipated, as he was considered one of the foremost authorities in his field.

Mrs. Kenneth Hosts at Bridge Party

Mrs. Kenneth, the wife of a prominent local businessman, hosted a bridge party in her home. The event was well-attended, with guests enjoying games of bridge and socializing with friends and neighbors.

Kitty Returns from Milk Order

Kitty, one of the beloved cows on the farm, had returned from her milk order. She was eagerly awaited, and her milk order was eagerly anticipated by the town.

Dr. John Mashek to Be Speaker

Dr. John Mashek, a respected doctor in the community, was scheduled to speak at a local event. His presence was highly anticipated, as he was known for his expertise and commitment to improving the health of the community.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

MONDAY, MARCH 11, 1940

OGDENBURG JOURNAL

308-10 Isabel St. — Ogdensburg, N. Y.