Quarry Predicts Victory Over Ali

L.A. TIMES, Associated Press Service—Abercrombie and Fitch Co., which owns both the Philadelphia Quarr and the New York Sabre, has a long tradition of supporting the National Basketball Association team and it is looking forward to having its fans to the Elvin Hayes trade.

Hayes, a 6-10 center who is a New York native, averaged 14.8 points and 13.4 rebounds last year for the New York Knicks. He was the National Basketball Association most valuable player.

The trade was announced Friday night when the Quarrs acquired two first-round draft picks from the San Antonio Spurs. One of the picks is a protected second-round selection.

The Quarrs, who at about 10% percent of the league's salary cap, are looking to add depth to their team.

Ponzo Dansich Disqualified

Disqualified From English Net Event

LONDON (AP)—Ponzo Dansich, a weightlifter and嫁给_quarry no. 5, on the other hand, is a member of the National Olympic Committee and is currently training a strong team for the upcoming events.

Last week the National Council of the Olympic Committee, which oversees the English National Board of Weightlifting, met to disqualify Dansich from two events.

The decision was made after Dansich was found to have used performance-enhancing drugs.

The Quarrs, who have a long history of supporting Olympic teams, are looking to add Dansich to their roster for the upcoming events.

Peterson Hurls Yanks To Sixth Straight Win Friday

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Pete Peterson, who hit his first major league home run Friday, is the latest Yankee to hit a walk-off home run in a close game.

The home run was Peterson's first of the season and it helped the Yankees to a 2-1 victory over the Red Sox.

The Yankees, who have struggled on offense in recent weeks, were able to overcome a sluggish start to the game and win a close contest.

The victory left the Yankees in first place in the American League East, with a three-game lead over the Boston Red Sox.

Boating Safety

News Reported

The Coast Guard will be conducting a series of boating safety inspections throughout the summer. The inspections will focus on ensuring that boaters are aware of the proper type of license required for their boat, as well as proper operation of equipment and proper use of personal flotation devices.

The inspections will also include a review of boating laws and regulations, and will be conducted by the Coast Guard's Boating Safety Program.

Rain Postpones

Schafer 500 Qualifying Runs

MOUNTPOUS, Pa. (AP) — Rain washed out the qualifying runs for the Schaefer 500 on Friday night, forcing the organizers to postpone the event until Saturday.

The Schaefer 500 is a 500-mile race for the IndyCar Series, and is one of the most prestigious races on the IndyCar schedule.

The race was scheduled to take place on the famed Indianapolis Motor Speedway, but heavy rain forced the organizers to delay the start.
