Ships Posed for Seaway Opening

$1.5 Million Contracts to Be Signed

Big Lakers Waiting ‘On Hook’

Several ships are under repair and are being extensively modernized at the Lake Shore shipyard in New York City. Up to date is the 190-foot steel barge ‘On Hook,’ which is scheduled to enter service this year and is being added to the fleet of the company’s Lake Shore division. The barge will be used to transport general cargo, including petroleum products, on the Great Lakes. The ‘On Hook’ is the latest addition to the company’s fleet of modernized vessels, which includes several other barges that will be entering service in the near future.
