MRS. D. E. KELLY'S FUNERAL IS HELD

 Funeral service for Mrs. Daniel E. Kelly, 73, of Wadhams, who died last week, were held at St. John's church, Wadhams, on Monday. Deacon Rudy S. Foster and Rev. Robert C. Brown officiated. Mrs. Kelly's husband and son, Edward Gonyea, who is employed by the junction of Miss Eileen Rose Fuller, are common, dolls are customary wedding presents.

Funeral services for William F. Adams of Wadhams were held at St. John's church yesterday. Mr. Adams was a member of the Enlisted Reserve Corps. Rev. Monsignor E. J. Brown, pastor of Our Lady of Fatima church, officiated.

USO PROGRAM IS ENJOYABLE

Monday night's feature presented Geoffrey O'Hara in Songs of the USO. The program was conducted by an Army captain and included songs by a USO volunteer. The service was held at the Greendale air base.

110 REGISTER IN ESMWS CLASSES

Enrollment will continue between 7 and 10 o'clock Wed. and Fri. Nights.

BLACK MARKET IN LIQUOR STORES PROBED

PHILADELPHIA, Pa.—A black market for liquor was discovered in Philadelphia by Waday Smith, who was sent by the state department of public safety to investigate the prices being charged for liquor. He found that the price charged for a bottle of whiskey was $1.50, while the selling price was $3.00.

WOMEN HEAD LINE IN USO PROGRAMS

WASHINGTON, D.C.—Women now head line in USO programs. They are serving as hostesses to service men and women at all USO posts in the United States.

SCRAP FOR DELIVERY TO THE ARMED FORCES

As part of the scrap drive, the USO will accept scrap metal and other materials. The USO will pay cash for scrap metal and will donate the proceeds to the USO fund.

BRITISH TO START AUTOMOTIVE LICENSES

LONDON, England, Oct. 25.—Britain plans to issue automotive licenses in a series of numbers for the use of all motor vehicles in the country. The licenses will be issued to all owners of vehicles in the United Kingdom and will be available at all post offices.

WOMEN HEAD LINE IN USO PROGRAMS

WASHINGTON, D.C.—Women now head line in USO programs. They are serving as hostesses to service men and women at all USO posts in the United States.

SCRAP FOR DELIVERY TO THE ARMED FORCES

As part of the scrap drive, the USO will accept scrap metal and other materials. The USO will pay cash for scrap metal and will donate the proceeds to the USO fund.