Commodore John W. Stokes Tendered
Tributional Dinner By Southold Y. C.

Trophies Awarded By Fleet Captain Rom; Sailors hairstyles

Nineteen members of the Southhold Yacht Club and five representatives of the Eastern Long Island Yachtsmen Association attended the annual Commodore's Dinner at Southold
Saturday evening in honor of Commodore John W. Stokes. Following a delicious dinner, seventeen trophies were presented, awarded to members of the fleet for best overall achievement in various classes of the year and for services rendered to the club and the community.
The Commodore's Address was delivered by Capt. Robert S. Lyman, president of the Eastern Long Island Yachtsmen, who praised the club's activities and expressed his appreciation of the members' contributions.

Suffolk D. A. R.
Meetings at Southold

The 51st Annual Meeting of the D.A.R. of Southold was held with Miss Helen W. Grattan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel R. Grattan of Southold, becoming the bride of Tom Currie-Bell, whose "Blue Star" venture, assembly was sounded for the opening of the meeting. Miss Grattan is a graduate of Barnard College.

First Concert To Present Leonard
Warren, Baritone

Leonard Warren, the American tertiary, who will be heard in Monday night's performance at the Southold High School, will present a special concert on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.
In addition to his performance, he will read some poems and give an address to the girls regarding the importance of the arts.

Suffolk County Blackout A Success;
Planes Grounded By Bad Weather

A large number of Boy Scouts of New York and New Jersey were gathered at the Southold School Grounds on Saturday to participate in the Suffolk County Blackout. The event was organized by the Suffolk County Boy Scout Council and was an outstanding success.

Boy Scouts Asked To Collect Waste Paper

Federal President Elbert S. Knudson of the National Council of the Boy Scouts called on the young men of the county for help in disposing of the waste paper

Suffolk County Blackout A Success;
Planes Grounded By Bad Weather

A large number of Boy Scouts of New York and New Jersey were gathered at the Southold School Grounds on Saturday to participate in the Suffolk County Blackout. The event was organized by the Suffolk County Boy Scout Council and was an outstanding success.

Old Crows Hold 64th
Annual Kay-Kaw At Indian Neck Sand

High winds and strong gusts hampered the bird watchers at the 64th Annual Kaw-Kaw at Indian Neck Sand on Saturday. Despite the weather, there were some interesting observations made by the crows.

Cancer Committee To Open Drive Next Week

The Cancer Committee of the Suffolk County Hospital opened its Cancer Study Drive next week. The committee will work on a project to study the causes and effects of cancer in the county.

Commodore John W. Stokes Tendered
Tributional Dinner By Southold Y. C.

Trophies Awarded By Fleet Captain Rom; Sailors hairstyles

Nineteen members of the Southhold Yacht Club and five representatives of the Eastern Long Island Yachtsmen Association attended the annual Commodore's Dinner at Southold Saturday evening in honor of Commodore John W. Stokes. Following a delicious dinner, seventeen trophies were presented, awarded to members of the fleet for best overall achievement in various classes of the year and for services rendered to the club and the community. The Commodore's Address was delivered by Capt. Robert S. Lyman, president of the Eastern Long Island Yachtsmen, who praised the club's activities and expressed his appreciation of the members' contributions.

Suffolk D. A. R.
Meetings at Southold

The 51st Annual Meeting of the D.A.R. of Southold was held with Miss Helen W. Grattan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel R. Grattan of Southold, becoming the bride of Tom Currie-Bell, whose "Blue Star" venture, assembly was sounded for the opening of the meeting. Miss Grattan is a graduate of Barnard College.

First Concert To Present Leonard Warren, Baritone

Leonard Warren, the American tertiary, who will be heard in Monday night's performance at the Southold High School, will present a special concert on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. In addition to his performance, he will read some poems and give an address to the girls regarding the importance of the arts.

Suffolk County Blackout A Success;
Planes Grounded By Bad Weather

A large number of Boy Scouts of New York and New Jersey were gathered at the Southold School Grounds on Saturday to participate in the Suffolk County Blackout. The event was organized by the Suffolk County Boy Scout Council and was an outstanding success.

Boy Scouts Asked To Collect Waste Paper

Federal President Elbert S. Knudson of the National Council of the Boy Scouts called on the young men of the county for help in disposing of the waste paper

Suffolk County Blackout A Success;
Planes Grounded By Bad Weather

A large number of Boy Scouts of New York and New Jersey were gathered at the Southold School Grounds on Saturday to participate in the Suffolk County Blackout. The event was organized by the Suffolk County Boy Scout Council and was an outstanding success.

Old Crows Hold 64th
Annual Kay-Kaw At Indian Neck Sand

High winds and strong gusts hampered the bird watchers at the 64th Annual Kaw-Kaw at Indian Neck Sand on Saturday. Despite the weather, there were some interesting observations made by the crows.

Cancer Committee To Open Drive Next Week

The Cancer Committee of the Suffolk County Hospital opened its Cancer Study Drive next week. The committee will work on a project to study the causes and effects of cancer in the county.

To Dedicate Elks' New Lodge Home
At Southampton On October 25th

The Dedication ceremony for the new Elks' Home of the Southold Lodge No. 1174, B. J. O. Elks will be held at the new home of the Lodge on Tuesday, October 25th, beginning at 7 o'clock.

White-Stevens Gives Interesting Address
At Custer Institute

White-Stevens tells of his missions and adventures in Africa and Asia. The audience was greatly interested in the adventures of the African and Asian travels of the famous American explorer.

Lime Bean Prices
At Southampton

At the Southampton Auction Block on Wednesday, November 3rd, lime beans brought the following prices:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Description</th>
<th>Price (cents per pound)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Long</td>
<td>14.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Medium</td>
<td>13.50</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Short</td>
<td>13.00</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Terry-Grattan

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel R. Grattan of Southold present a special dinner for President Terry-Grattan of the National Council of the Boy Scouts of America. The dinner was held at the Southold Elks' Home on Monday evening, October 25th.

Sanford A. R.
Meetings at East Marion

Sanford A. R. held its annual meeting on Saturday, October 29th, in the East Marion Schoolhouse.

The New York State Agricultural Association was held last Sunday afternoon and evening at the residence of Charles F. Goad at Mattituck.