Annual PYA Christmas Music Program Is Sunday

The Senior High School annual holiday program will be held Sunday afternoon, Dec. 18, in the church at 3:30 p.m. A mixture of old favorites and new Christmas songs will be given by the PYA Glee Club, PYA Seniors and Junior High School students.

Community Center Will Close Dec. 31

The Community Center will be closed Dec. 31, according to a notice posted at the Center. The Center will be Talbot's during Christmas week.

Jerusalem Mixes Village Annexation Of Indian Pines

Seem Tax Boost
For Both Inside, Outside Residents

Properties owned by the Jerusalem School District and the Newsboy Homes are presently devoting their efforts to the new school at 158 E. Main Street. The new school will be used for the elementary grades and the old school for the senior grades.

Physical Therapy Now Available At Penn Yan Hospital

Store Founder
Regales Rotarians

Yates Couple Win Court Judgement

Women Bowlers To Meet Dec. 11

Do Not Open Until...

Planners Chart Development Of Penn Yan Of The Future

The best for Penn Yan's future is the success with which it had a plan for the better plan for Penn Yan. If this is true, then the population forecast for Penn Yan is a self-contained economy.

Lake Keuka State Park Land Acquired

The Finger Lakes Park Commission, in the State of New York, has acquired 161 acres of land along the western shore of Bluff Point, including Bluff Point, for the Lake Keuka State Park. The acquisition was made for the purpose of preserving the natural beauty of the area and providing public access to the lake.

Toy Shop Has Need For More Toys This Year

The need for toys at the York Street Toy Shop is expected to continue this year. The shop is open during the holiday season to provide gifts for children in need.

Police Undertake Canine Count

The canine census throughout the village of Penn Yan is being conducted. The goal is to count all dogs in the village to ensure compliance with local animal control regulations.