Send In Your News Items

Business Notices

Notice under this heading, to get the attention of house girls. Order of Thanks, etc.

FOR SADL—DRT WOOD, Geo. C. Smith, Johnstown, read, 38.45. FOR SADL—Sirs, William, 5s. 30. FOR SADL—Jules, 1.50, 3.4. FOR SADL—Ladd, 1s. 9d. FOR SADL—Trade—My good services are no longer required, for which reason I propose to sell my goods in the following quantity: 2000 pieces of 3/8 inch in flax, three 100 feet each, 50 pieces 3/16 inch, 50 pieces 1/4 inch, 50 pieces 3/8 inch, 250 pieces 1/2 inch, 100 pieces 5/8 inch, 50 pieces 3/4 inch, 25 pieces 1 inch. These items are for sale, and are all in first-class order, 40 cents per pound. F. P. Holt, Hammond.

Local News

Howard A. Peth of Chippewa, was a town buyer on business.

Tom Chapman called on Mrs. and Mrs. David Sharp of Hammond, and settled their account.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Stevenson called on Mrs. and Mrs. William Stevens of Hammond, and saw their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Felt called on Mrs. and Mrs. William Stevens of Hammond, and saw their new home.

Notice of Death

Mrs. Jennie O'Hara, who has been residing in Wisconsin for many years, died at Ogdensburg, Thursday, October 17th, at 77 years of age. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John O'Hara, of Ogdensburg. She leaves a sister, Mrs. Jennie O'Hara of Ogdensburg, nephews, nieces, and many friends.

Tune In

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey and your next U. S. Senator

Thursday, Oct. 24—WJZ—10 P. M.
Monday, Oct. 21—WSYR and WJZ—6:15 P. M.
Saturday, Oct. 26—WSYR and WJZ—10 P. M.

For Sale—Dry Wood. Glen O. Wood heater, also cook stove. Emile Perretta, dial 4141 Brier Hill.

FOR SALE—Farmstead. For more information, please call Leo E. Saunders, Hammond.

FOR SADL—Chopsticks and Glen O. (Continued from Page 1)

Missy Sharp was called to Ogdensburg Monday by Mrs. and Mrs. Wilson Stevenson calling on Mrs. and Mrs. Lawrence Stevens Wednesday evening. Missy Sharp was called to Ogdensburg Monday by Mrs. and Mrs. Wilson Stevenson calling on Mrs. and Mrs. Lawrence Stevens Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Nellie Dunn, is spending a few days in Ogdensburg. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Dunn of Glenville.

Local News

sufficient water alone is apt to give it "the blind staggers." Thawed meat is more perishable than frozen meat. It should be watched closely. Once thawed, it is doomed. At best, it is 50 per cent inferior to frozen meat.

Mr. and Mrs. Worth Richardson. Mrs. and Mrs. Wilson Stevenson called on Mrs. and Mrs. Lawrence Stevens Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Jennie O'Hara, who has been residing in Wisconsin for many years, died at Ogdensburg, Thursday, October 17th, at 77 years of age. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John O'Hara, of Ogdensburg. She leaves a sister, Mrs. Jennie O'Hara of Ogdensburg, nephews, nieces, and many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Stevenson called on Mrs. and Mrs. William Stevens of Hammond, and saw their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Stevenson called on Mrs. and Mrs. John Felt of Hammond.

Mr. and Mrs. Worth Richardson.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Stevenson called on Mrs. and Mrs. Lawrence Stevens Wednesday evening.

Notice of Death

Mrs. Jennie O'Hara, who has been residing in Wisconsin for many years, died at Ogdensburg, Thursday, October 17th, at 77 years of age. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John O'Hara, of Ogdensburg. She leaves a sister, Mrs. Jennie O'Hara of Ogdensburg, nephews, nieces, and many friends.

Tune In

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey and your next U. S. Senator

Thursday, Oct. 24—WJZ—10 P. M.
Monday, Oct. 21—WSYR and WJZ—6:15 P. M.
Saturday, Oct. 26—WSYR and WJZ—10 P. M.

For Sale—Dry Wood. Glen O. Wood heater, also cook stove. Emile Perretta, dial 4141 Brier Hill.

FOR SALE—Farmstead. For more information, please call Leo E. Saunders, Hammond.

FOR SADL—Chopsticks and Glen O. (Continued from Page 1)