Although the bill, designed to place the municipal ferries under a separate department with a State board, is expected to pass the Legislature, there is little likelihood of its going into effect.

It is expected that the bill will give the administration considerable control over the ferries.

The bill will also give the Mayor a greater say in the operation of the ferries.

In the arrest of Henry Sandichul eight and one-half years old, of the 90th Street, the police believe they have cleared up the mystery of a number of burglaries that have recently been committed in the borough.

The boy was arrested yesterday by Warrant Officer Hoffert of the 90th Street.

The boy is being held in the Children's Society, charging him with juvenile delinquency.

For some time, numerous thefts had occurred among the burglaries and when some of the neighbors saw the Sandichul boy prowling around them, the boy was taken to the police station.
