SAMMY BEEKMAN'S

Oyster and Confectionery Saloon.

SAMMY BEEKMAN returns his thanks to those who have thus far so liberally patronized him, and begs to inform the public that he has removed to the building formerly occupied by the late Mrs. Merritt, where he will be pleased to see all his old friends, and as many new ones as they will bring.
He will keep constantly on hand a large assortment of Confectionery, Ice Cream, and the finest of Oysters. c 11 y

AIR—YANKEE DOODLE.

Ye sporting men, give ear to song
In numbers sweet and thrilling.
For you a Bard has tuned his harp,
And lend thine ear if willing.

Chorus—Yankee Doodle is the air,
A favorite in this nation.
Then let its numbers sweetly flow,
With all their variation.

None can excel our rifles fair
Within this Yankee nation;
If we should tell their virtues al
To all a demonstration.
Yankee Doodle, &c.

Rare Guns and Pistols neatly made.
We have in brilliant order.
That are not surpassed by any one
Within the State or border.
Yankee Doodle, &c.

Good Powder, shot, and also Caps,
At prices fair we're selling;
If we should tell their virtues al
A volume we'd be swelling.
Yankee Doodle, &c.

And Locks and Keys we do repair,
And fit in order charming;
Please call and see at KOOLLEN'S shop,
Both sporting men, and farming.
Yankee Doodle, &c.

A. KOOLLEN you will find at home
In fair and stormy weather;
Come then at once, ye that have need,
But don't all come together
Yankee Doodle, &c.

ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE.

A Pursuant to an order of Jesse F. Bookstaver, Surrogate of the County of Ulster, made on the 5th day of September, 1859, upon the application of Stephen Maloney, Administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of John Fallon deceased, intestate, for authority to sell, lease or mortgage so much of the real estate of the said John Fallon as shall be necessary to pay his debts, and upon and by virtue of the proceedings had in due form of law upon said application, the subscriber will sell at public sale at the house of Peter Crispell, in the town of Shandaken, County of Ulster, on the 27th day of October, 1859, at 11 A. M. of that day, the real estate of John Fallon, in and by said order directed to be sold, bounded and described as follows, viz:

All that certain tract or parcel of land, situate, lying and being in the town of Shandaken, being part of a large tract in division six of Great Lot number eight of the Hardenburgh Patent, which said part lies on the northerly side of the Ulster and Delaware Plank Road, the northerly bounds of the tannery lot now in possession of George W. Tuttle, beginning on the westerly bound of a fifty acre lot heretofore sold to Conrad Misner out of said tract and on the northerly side of said plank road five chains and fifty one links northeasterly from a hemlock marked tree being the northerly corner of said Tannery Lot, from thence running along the said lot of Misner north fifty four degrees west twenty one chains and seventy links to a heap of stones on the south east side of the mountain, then north 35 degrees east 20 chains and sixty (60) links to a stake and stones on the bounds of the Deer tract 3 chains and 78 links southeasterly of the Misner corner in said Deer tract, then along the same north 54 degrees west 45 chains to a heap of stones on the southerly bounds of the Lansett tract, then along the same south thirty four degrees and 15 minutes west about 70 chains to the north bounds of said plank road, then along the same northeasterly as it runs to the north bounds of the Tannery Lot of said George W. Tuttle, where it crosses said Plank Road, then along the same as it runs until it meets the said Plank Road again and thence along the same to the place of beginning, containing about one hundred and eighty four acres, more or less." Dated Shandaken, September 12th, 1859 DAVID C. GRIFFIN.

TERMS OF THE ULSTER COUNTY COURT, AND COURT OF SESSIONS FOR 1859.

In pursuance of the Statute in such case made and provided, I do hereby appoint the second Monday of March, the third Monday of June, the first Monday of September and the third Monday of November, as the times for holding the County Court and Court of Sessions in aid for the County of Ulster, for the year 1859. A Petit Jury will be summoned for each Term, but a Grand Jury will be summoned only for the September Term. Dated January 1, 1859.

N. B. GRAHAM, County Judge.

ULSTER COUNTY SURROGATE'S OFFICE.

Notice is hereby given that I will attend at the Surrogate's Office in the village of Kingston, in said County, on MONDAY of each week, to execute the powers and duties conferred on me, and that the Surrogate's Office will be at all times open for the transaction of business. Dated January 1, 1859.

JESSE F. BOOKSTAVEN, Surrogate.

Miscellaneous.

I Will Be Good To-Day.

"I will be good, dear mother,"
I heard a sweet child say;
"I will be good—now watch me—
I will be good all day."

She lifted up her bright young eyes,
With a soft and pleasing smile;
Then a mother's kiss was on her lips,
So free and pure from guile.

And when night came, that little one,
In kneeling down to pray,
Said, in a soft and whispering tone,
"Have I been good to-day?"

Oh, many, many bitter tears
"T would save us, did we say.
Like that dear child, with earnest hearts,
"I will be good to-day."

NOVEL, BUT KIND.—A few days ago a dead letter was returned to the Post Of fice Department, on the back of which a printed label was pasted, in the following words, (we omit the name of the post of fice):

"This letter was detained in the post office at —, N. J., on account of the non-payment of postage. One who real izes how important it may be to have let ters forwarded immediately has placed the necessary stamps upon this letter. To re pay him please send one postage stamp, addressed to box 582, —, N. J."

This excited the attention of the Post master General, by whose direction Mr.
King addressed a letter to the postmaster
at the mailing office, asking an explain ation. He replied that this service "is voluntary, and is performed by one of our wealthy citizens, who has expended in this way from two hundred to three hun dred dollars during the whole time, since the postage on letters has been required to be prepaid. He has given me standing authority to prepay and forward all let ters, both foreign and domestic, of that description, and his motive is no other than 'the consciousness of having per formed a friendly act.'"

OMITTING TOO MUCH.—A green, good natured, money-making, up-country fel low, who said everything drily, "got things fixed," and struck up a bargain for matrimony. Having no particular regard for appearances, the parties agreed to em ploy a not over-wise country justice to put on the tackling. He commenced the ceremonies by remarking that "it was customary on such occasions to commence with a prayer, but he believed he would omit that." After tying the knot, he said
"it was customary to give the married couple some advice, but he believed he would omit that. It was customary, too, to kiss the bride, but he believed he would omit that also." The ceremony being ended, the bridegroom took the justice by the button-hole, and clapping his finger on his nose, said: "Squire, it's customary to give the magistrate five dollars—but I believe I'll omit that!"

A lady who makes but a modest spread of crinoline was passing along the street in Richmond the other day, when she was met by a young man full of bad whiskey, who in staggering past stepped on her dress. Turning to the lady, he remarked apologetically, "hoops take up too much room," to which the lady quic kly replied, "Not so much as whiskey, sir," and passed on.

It does not appear to be so generally known as it should be, that railroad transportation destroys the vitality of eggs.
Pack them as you will, if they are carried any considerable distance, say one hun dred miles, the continual shaking will shake the life out of them.

"Husband, I must have some change to-day." "Well, stay at home and take care of the children; that will be change enough, anyhow."
