

SCENIC TRIP FOR DELEGATES

Congregational Association elects Officers—Sessions end Tonight.

Ideal weather favored the scenic trip to Summit Point in Allegany State Park, taken this afternoon by delegates to the thirty-sixth annual meeting of the Western New York Association of Congregational Churches and Ministers and the Society of Congregational Church Women of New York State, being held in the Congregational church here.

The following officers of the association were elected at this morning's session: Moderator, Rev. A. L. Briddon, Livonia; assistant moderator, Rev. S. O. B. Johnson, Buffalo; registrar, Rev. A. K. Blaze, Little Valley; treasurer, Newell L. Nussbaum, Buffalo; auditor, Harry Plumley, Buffalo.

RED HOUSE

M. H. Constantine of Franklinville is spending a few days with his daughter, Mrs. G. Hubbard. Mr. and Mrs. Kenyon Mattos and son spent Sunday at Limestone. Mrs. Grace Boyer returned home Monday from Chelsea, Mich., where she spent several weeks with her daughter Mrs. John Fletcher.

QUAKER BRIDGE

Richard and Winifred Campbell spent the week end with friends in Canisteo. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hills and daughter of Salamanca visited at Frank Hills' Friday. Harry Bowley was in Olean Thursday on business.

PERSONALS

Miss Gene Scouten, who is employed in Bradford, is spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell M. Scouten of Wildwood avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Beldin and daughter Lenore of 459 Wildwood avenue returned Wednesday night from DuBois, Pa., where on Monday they attended the funeral of her mother, Mrs. A. F. Downing. Mildred Beldin, who also attended the funeral, will spend two weeks with relatives in Ridgway, Pa., before returning home.

RUTH ELDER IN PORTUGAL

Welcomed by Crowd and taken in charge by American Minister.

Lisbon, Portugal, Oct. 25 (AP)—A welcome which sounded from land and sea and air greeted Ruth Elder and her co-pilot, George Haldeman, when the American fliers arrived at Lisbon this evening aboard the steamer Lima from the Azores, after their bold Atlantic flight and rescue from the ocean. Airplanes circled over the adventurous couple, harbor craft swarmed about the steamer, while whistles screamed greetings and the vast concourse of people at the docks and in the city streets shouted joyfully welcoming them to the old world.

PERSONALS

There seems to be some doubts as to future plans. It was at first thought they would fly to Madrid, but they now expect to leave Lisbon Thursday by airplane, flying direct to Paris. Miss Gene Scouten, who is employed in Bradford, is spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell M. Scouten of Wildwood avenue.

RUTH ELDER PUT TO BED

suffering from flu; Paris trip postponed

Lisbon, Portugal, Oct. 26 (AP)—Ruth Elder, American aviatrix, is suffering from influenza and has taken to her bed. She was in need of complete rest, and her departure for Madrid, en route to Paris, has been postponed indefinitely. It was stated that the aviatrix, who arrived here only yesterday from Porto, had passed a bad night and complained of severe pain in her chest.

SECOND BOYS' BAND FORMED

Starts out with Membership of 82—Girls' Band Possible.

Organization of a second school boys' band was announced at an assembly at the high school auditorium on Friday by Professor Edward John, director of the Salamanca School Boys' Band, which has attained notable success during the past year. The new band, Mr. John said, is composed of students somewhat younger than those in the first band. It starts out with a membership of 82, of whom 21 are girls; and Mr. John indicated the possibility of a separate school girls' band next year. The Salamanca School Boys' Band had charge of the program at assembly and played several selections, which were heartily applauded by the students.
