TUBERCULOSIS WORKERS TO HAVE INSTITUTE HERE

Will be Held at Mirror Lake Inn

A three-day institute for tuberculosis workers from counties will be held at the Mirror Lake Inn, November 26-28. The object of the institute is to acquaint the tuberculosis workers of the state and county tuberculosis association with the latest methods and procedures. An executive secretary, and associate directors and workers of the various county tuberculosis associations will be present.

A symptom will be included in the institute for the control of tuberculosis in the home. The American Thoracic Society in cooperation with the American Lung Association has sponsored this project.

Tuesday, November 26—(Morning) Mrs. Marie Warner, state director of health, and Albert V. Harris, executive secretary, tuberculosis association of New York State, will be in charge of the institute.

In the afternoon, the state health department will be in charge. The war this week the state health department will be in charge of the institute.

Wednesday, November 27—The morning session will be held at the New York State health department. The afternoon will be devoted to the various county tuberculosis associations. The state health department will be in charge of the institute.

Thursday, November 28—The morning session will be held at the New York State health department. The afternoon will be devoted to the various county tuberculosis associations. The state health department will be in charge of the institute.

The tour is operated at low cost, with ample facilities to present a special attractions. The tour is operated at low cost, with ample facilities to present a special attractions.