Notes on Nuptials

Wed'd Ipalp Man

The former Miss Ada Louise Gerri

WEDNESDAY

Miss Gerri, daughter of Mr. John A. and Mrs. Ada K. Gerri, was married to Donald Napier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald W. Napier, both of Patchogue, on Wednesday evening at St. James Episcopal Church. The ceremony was officiated by Rev. E. A. Waterman, Rector. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was dressed in a gown of ivory satin trimmed with lace and seqiun, and carried a bouquet of white gladioli and white orchids with a purple lip. The groom, who was dressed in a black suit, carried a bouquet of white gladioli.

d 3:00 a.m. — Sunday School.

The church was attractively decorated in white dahlias, orchids, and yellow chrysanthemums. The organist, accompanied Mrs. James H. Gallo, sang "Because" before the ceremony. "Ave Maria," (Gounod), during it, with recitation and "Santo Abad," (Coppini) during the recessional.

After a two weeks' wedding trip to Washington, D.C., the couple will reside in New York.

BRIDAL PARTY

Miss Dorothy Benjamin, maid-of-honor, was dressed in a 100% wool plaid, with white accessories and black shoes. Miss Eleanor Piro, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor. She wore an old-fashioned bouquet of pink chrysanthemums.

BRIDESMAIDS

The bridesmaids, Miss Anne Zanga and Miss Dorothy Benjamin, both of Patchogue, were members of the Interclub, junior division. Miss Dorothy Benjamin was a member of the South Bay Scooter club of Patchogue, and Miss Zanga was a member of the South Bay Yacht Club.

FLOWERS

The church was decorated with flowers, including American Beauty feather hats, and American Beauty feather hats with white chrysanthemums and white orchids.

MUSICAL ARRANGEMENTS

The church choir sang "The Lord's Prayer" before the ceremony and "Ave Maria," (Gounod), during it, with recitation and "Santo Abad," (Coppini) during the recessional.

After a two weeks' wedding trip to Washington, D.C., the couple will reside in New York.

BRIDAL PARTY

Miss Dorothy Benjamin, maid-of-honor, was dressed in a 100% wool plaid, with white accessories and black shoes. Miss Eleanor Piro, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor. She wore an old-fashioned bouquet of pink chrysanthemums.

BRIDESMAIDS

The bridesmaids, Miss Anne Zanga and Miss Dorothy Benjamin, both of Patchogue, were members of the Interclub, junior division. Miss Dorothy Benjamin was a member of the South Bay Scooter club of Patchogue, and Miss Zanga was a member of the South Bay Yacht Club.

FLOWERS

The church was decorated with flowers, including American Beauty feather hats, and American Beauty feather hats with white chrysanthemums and white orchids.

MUSICAL ARRANGEMENTS

The church choir sang "The Lord's Prayer" before the ceremony and "Ave Maria," (Gounod), during it, with recitation and "Santo Abad," (Coppini) during the recessional.

After a two weeks' wedding trip to Washington, D.C., the couple will reside in New York.