Osborn Land Proposal Turned Down, 435-116

BELLPORT — The proposal that the Village of Bellport acquire by condemnation or otherwise the Osborn land property on County Road West for a fire training area was defeated by a vote of 3-2 at a special meeting of the Village Board of Trustees Tuesday night.

In a final vote, the trustees voted 3-2 to defeat the proposal, with Trustees Robert Borden, Jack Flanagan and Robert Grossman voting in favor and Trustees Edward Wicks and O. M. ladies voting against it.

The Osborn land property is located on County Road West, between the businesses of North Shore and Long Beach, and has been the site of numerous fires over the years.

The trustees were also asked to consider a proposal to purchase the property for $1,000,000, but they rejected it.

Fire Siren Test Set In Bellport Saturday

BELLPORT — The Bellport Fire Department will conduct a siren test Saturday at 2 p.m., according to Fire Chief Peter M. Reynolds. The test will take place on Main Street and will be audible throughout the village.

New Play Area Opened in Brookhaven

BELLPORT — A new play area has been opened in Brookhaven. The area is located on the southwest corner of Main Street and Doty Place, and is accessible by walking down Doty Place from Main Street.

Tulane Law School Scholarship Won By Wilbur S. Stakes

BELLPORT — Wilbur S. Stakes won the Tulane Law School Scholarship, which is awarded to students who are outstanding in scholarship and character.

High School Site, Bus Vote Scheduled in Dist. 4 Tuesday

Helped Develop Bellport:

Mrs. Jennie Visco Dies

BELLPORT — Mrs. Jennie Visco, who played an active role in the development of Bellport, died Monday at the age of 78. She was a member of the Bellport School Board for many years.

In other news, the Bellport Volunteer Fire Department was called to a fire at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John O'Neill, Jr., located at 139 Main Street. The fire was quickly extinguished and the damage was limited to the kitchen.

Osborn Land Proposal Turned Down, 435-116

BELLPORT — The proposal that the Village of Bellport acquire by condemnation or otherwise the Osborn land property on County Road West for a fire training area was defeated by a vote of 3-2 at a special meeting of the Village Board of Trustees Tuesday night.

In a final vote, the trustees voted 3-2 to defeat the proposal, with Trustees Robert Borden, Jack Flanagan and Robert Grossman voting in favor and Trustees Edward Wicks and O. M. ladies voting against it.

The Osborn land property is located on County Road West, between the businesses of North Shore and Long Beach, and has been the site of numerous fires over the years.

The trustees were also asked to consider a proposal to purchase the property for $1,000,000, but they rejected it.

Fire Siren Test Set In Bellport Saturday

BELLPORT — The Bellport Fire Department will conduct a siren test Saturday at 2 p.m., according to Fire Chief Peter M. Reynolds. The test will take place on Main Street and will be audible throughout the village.

New Play Area Opened in Brookhaven

BELLPORT — A new play area has been opened in Brookhaven. The area is located on the southwest corner of Main Street and Doty Place, and is accessible by walking down Doty Place from Main Street.

Tulane Law School Scholarship Won By Wilbur S. Stakes

BELLPORT — Wilbur S. Stakes won the Tulane Law School Scholarship, which is awarded to students who are outstanding in scholarship and character.

High School Site, Bus Vote Scheduled in Dist. 4 Tuesday

Helped Develop Bellport:

Mrs. Jennie Visco Dies

BELLPORT — Mrs. Jennie Visco, who played an active role in the development of Bellport, died Monday at the age of 78. She was a member of the Bellport School Board for many years.

In other news, the Bellport Volunteer Fire Department was called to a fire at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John O'Neill, Jr., located at 139 Main Street. The fire was quickly extinguished and the damage was limited to the kitchen.

Osborn Land Proposal Turned Down, 435-116

BELLPORT — The proposal that the Village of Bellport acquire by condemnation or otherwise the Osborn land property on County Road West for a fire training area was defeated by a vote of 3-2 at a special meeting of the Village Board of Trustees Tuesday night.

In a final vote, the trustees voted 3-2 to defeat the proposal, with Trustees Robert Borden, Jack Flanagan and Robert Grossman voting in favor and Trustees Edward Wicks and O. M. ladies voting against it.

The Osborn land property is located on County Road West, between the businesses of North Shore and Long Beach, and has been the site of numerous fires over the years.

The trustees were also asked to consider a proposal to purchase the property for $1,000,000, but they rejected it.

Fire Siren Test Set In Bellport Saturday

BELLPORT — The Bellport Fire Department will conduct a siren test Saturday at 2 p.m., according to Fire Chief Peter M. Reynolds. The test will take place on Main Street and will be audible throughout the village.

New Play Area Opened in Brookhaven

BELLPORT — A new play area has been opened in Brookhaven. The area is located on the southwest corner of Main Street and Doty Place, and is accessible by walking down Doty Place from Main Street.

Tulane Law School Scholarship Won By Wilbur S. Stakes

BELLPORT — Wilbur S. Stakes won the Tulane Law School Scholarship, which is awarded to students who are outstanding in scholarship and character.

High School Site, Bus Vote Scheduled in Dist. 4 Tuesday

Helped Develop Bellport:

Mrs. Jennie Visco Dies

BELLPORT — Mrs. Jennie Visco, who played an active role in the development of Bellport, died Monday at the age of 78. She was a member of the Bellport School Board for many years.

In other news, the Bellport Volunteer Fire Department was called to a fire at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John O'Neill, Jr., located at 139 Main Street. The fire was quickly extinguished and the damage was limited to the kitchen.

Osborn Land Proposal Turned Down, 435-116

BELLPORT — The proposal that the Village of Bellport acquire by condemnation or otherwise the Osborn land property on County Road West for a fire training area was defeated by a vote of 3-2 at a special meeting of the Village Board of Trustees Tuesday night.

In a final vote, the trustees voted 3-2 to defeat the proposal, with Trustees Robert Borden, Jack Flanagan and Robert Grossman voting in favor and Trustees Edward Wicks and O. M. ladies voting against it.

The Osborn land property is located on County Road West, between the businesses of North Shore and Long Beach, and has been the site of numerous fires over the years.

The trustees were also asked to consider a proposal to purchase the property for $1,000,000, but they rejected it.

Fire Siren Test Set In Bellport Saturday

BELLPORT — The Bellport Fire Department will conduct a siren test Saturday at 2 p.m., according to Fire Chief Peter M. Reynolds. The test will take place on Main Street and will be audible throughout the village.

New Play Area Opened in Brookhaven

BELLPORT — A new play area has been opened in Brookhaven. The area is located on the southwest corner of Main Street and Doty Place, and is accessible by walking down Doty Place from Main Street.

Tulane Law School Scholarship Won By Wilbur S. Stakes

BELLPORT — Wilbur S. Stakes won the Tulane Law School Scholarship, which is awarded to students who are outstanding in scholarship and character.

High School Site, Bus Vote Scheduled in Dist. 4 Tuesday

Helped Develop Bellport:

Mrs. Jennie Visco Dies

BELLPORT — Mrs. Jennie Visco, who played an active role in the development of Bellport, died Monday at the age of 78. She was a member of the Bellport School Board for many years.

In other news, the Bellport Volunteer Fire Department was called to a fire at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John O'Neill, Jr., located at 139 Main Street. The fire was quickly extinguished and the damage was limited to the kitchen.