

Adirondack News

Entered as P. O. as 2d Class Matter
All papers discontinued at the expiration of time paid for.
SATURDAY APRIL 28, 1933
SUBSCRIPTION RATES
One Year $1.50
Eight Months 1.00
Six Months .75
Canadian rates, per year 2.00
Single Copy 5c

Local and Personal

MICKIE SAYS

WE WELCOME NEWS ITEMS ON THE TOP OF THE YEAR-END COLUMN. WE WANT TO SEE ALL NEWS ITEMS UNDER THE DOOR—WE WANT THEM TO STAY THERE. WE WANT TO SEE ALL NEWS ITEMS, SO PLEASE, HESITATE TO VOLUNTARILY ANY.

Our school re-opened Monday after the Easter recess.

A. R. O'Neil, of Ogdenburg, was a business caller in St. Regis Falls Wednesday.

Mrs. Wm. U. Hollister is spending a few days at the home of her daughter, Mrs. L. E. McNell.

Mrs. Philip Prior and son Junior, returned from Carthage Sunday, after spending a week there.

District Superintendent of Schools Miss Gertrude R. Hyde, of Malton, was a visitor at our school Wednesday.

Otto H. Smith and his nephews, Robert and Otto Reid, spent the week-end in Schoenectady, with Mr. Smith's mother.

Miss Ethel Hump returned to her school at Lyons Mountain, after spending the Easter vacation at her home in St. Regis Falls.

Mrs. Harold Baker and little son, of Syracuse, are spending two weeks at the home of Mrs. Baker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Cheney.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Rusterholts, of Plattsburgh, spent the Easter vacation at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Hanley, in St. Regis Falls.

Rev. Harold A. Thomas has been returned to the pastorate of St. Regis Falls and Dickinson Center Methodist Episcopal churches for another year, which meets the approval of his constituency.

The Ladies' Athletic Club will hold their final meeting of the season next Wednesday evening in the school gym. All members are urged to present as important matters will be brought before the members.

Wm. U. Hollister received a telegram last Friday, stating that his brother-in-law, H. W. Park, of Montpelier, was dead. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Hollister, son Harry, and Mrs. Cotton, of Malone, attended to Montpelier Saturday to attend the funeral.

Members of St. Regis Chapter, O. E. S., to the number of twenty seven were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Cheney, at a supper party Tuesday night at their home on the St. Regis Falls-Nicholsville road. Maple syrup in various forms and other choice refreshments were served by the hostess. An enjoyable time was reported.

Annual St. Regis Falls High School Exhibition Will Be Held May 6th

The annual school exhibition will be held the afternoon and evening of May 6th.

The program for the high school and grades will be held from 2:30 to 8:00 P. M. Evening program from 7:30 to 8:15. At the close of the program, operators will be admitted to the exhibits in the different rooms. Parents of school children and those interested in the school are urged to attend.

F. A. Wright Appointed Sup. of Highways

At the special session of Franklin County Board of Supervisors held at their room in the Court House in Malone, Tuesday, Fred A. Wright, of Burke, was appointed superintendent of highways for Franklin county. The election list received from the civil service commission, contained the names of Leitch W. Douglas, of Chateaugay, Donald D. Williams, of Malone, and Fred A. Wright.

William Girard, of Tupper Lake, was appointed as the Republican member of the Board of County Election Commissioners.

A resolution was adopted to appropriate $5,000 for the election expenses in connection with the coming special election for delegates to the state constitutional convention or prohibition repeal. The sum of $4,000 each for welfare work and old age relief was also appropriated.

Conference Appointments

The annual session of the Northern New York Conference ended Monday forenoon with the announcement of the appointments. A comparatively small number of changes were made. A compilation of parishes was made in three cases. Edwards and Hallsboro formerly two, were made one charge. West Pole and Bucks Bridge were added to the Madrid charge and Feltz Mills was added to Black River charge. A vote favorable to the elimination of one district superintendent to take effect 1934 was made. These steps were taken in the interest of economy. The new appointments were as follows:

Black River District—Allen Moore to Cape Vincent; F. N. Churchill to Martinsburg circuit; W. G. Whitman to Philadelphia; A. E. Good to supply list; Frank Mincham to Three Mile Bay; Mrs. R. E. Wright to substitute list; Douglas Fowler to substitute list; W. H. Brasie to Spragueville; M. L. Hutchinson to Belleville; G. A. Fouts to Constatella.

Malone District—K. L. Coombs to Clarksville; R. K. Sheffield to Tupper Lake; W. E. Baker to North Italy.

Ontario District—A. S. Haven to Constableville and Greig; Dr. G. F. Shepherd to retirement; Chas. Rhumway to Lewis; S. P. Walker to Salisbury (center); M. Shepherd to Clinton; A. E. Blunden to Central Square; C. W. Bachelier to Cherry Valley; C. T. Martin to Lee Center.

St. Lawrence District—Norman McLellan to supply list; A. C. Loucks to the retirement list; Stanley E. Skinner to Conifer; W. R. Young, W. Nookholm; W. H. Lawry supply; Kenneth Ayers to supply list; W. O. Hill to Rensselaer Falls; E. Woodley to Norwood; Mrs. B. E. Pratt to supply list; W. F. Clark to Malone; W. A. Sullivan to retirement; C. H. Hesse to Hallsboro and Edwards; Ellis Mumson to supply list; J. A. Byrhop to Carthage.

Methodist Church at Heuvelten Burned

A bad fire which for a time threatened the business section of that village early Monday morning, destroyed the Methodist Episcopal church at Heuvelten.

The fire started about 3:15 o'clock in a barn owned by Mrs. Hester McFadden, located next to the church. While the village slept the flames spread to the Methodist church and set fire to the peak of the roof near the rear. The roof which was of tin, resisted the fire but the flames spread underneath it. The barn where the fire started was burned as well as another barn nearby. Flying embers threatened other nearby buildings, but fortunately they were saved.

Three fire departments, Heuvelten, Rensselaer Falls and Ogdenburg, concentrated their work on the church, but after two hours of futile effort, gave the building up as lost.

The church was built in 1879 and was located directly across from the New York Central station and was in the heart of the village. The building was repaired and changed at various times and in 1916 a fire organ, costing $1500 was installed. The church also had a large number of handsome memorial windows, which had been presented by members of the church and community.

Rev. Albert E. Budd, is pastor of the church.

Grand and Petit Jurors

Following is a list of the grand and petit jurors who have been drawn to serve at the term of Supreme Court of Franklin county, which will convene in the Court House in Malone, Monday, May 8th. Justice John Alexander will preside.

GRAND JURORS
Brushout—Georgy McDonald, Burke—Walter Brandt, Constable—Anson J. Stark, Faust—Joseph W. Sparks, Loon Lake—James Law, Malone—Edward F. Boyes, P. E. Ryan, Harold Starcliffe, Clarence Collins, Isaiah Brockway, Seward Sweet, Judson Clark, Molra—Wm. Elmer, North Bangor—Walter Smith, Geo. W. DeLong, Owls Head—Harold E. Livernois, Santa Clara—John N. Dinick, Saranac Lake—Wm. O'Neil, Francie Trouble.

PETIT JURORS
Axtion—Ernest Wood, Bombay—William Barber, Nell Sullivan, Burke—Arlington R. Reynolds, Chateaugay—Thomas McFarrell, St. Henry Smith, William Harrigan Jr., Constable—Stuart Vaughn, Dickinson Center—Edgar Powell, Raymond Niles, Fort Covington—Eugene DeGowan, Patrick Howard, Faust—Edward Forkey, Leon Trudell, Malone—Abraham Deacon, Geo. Yando, Alexander McGulick, Frank Marlow, John Goyiys, Wallace E. Hogle, John Doherty, Leonard Hutchinson, Roy J. Manely, Stuart G. Hunter, Thomas Connelly, Leon Moody, George Martin, Gordon Lombard, Saranac Lake—John C. Leaty, Santa Clara—Mella Provost, Tupper Lake—Charles J. O'Hara, William D. Martin, Wilfred Deno, Frank J. Wood, Whippleville—Peter Bachand, North Bangor—Wells Stenberge.

Christian Observance of the Sabbath

The difference between the Sabbath and Sunday, and the change from religion to recreation, is the subject of the first day of the week, is that the Sabbath, the ancient Hebrew weekly day of rest, was the seventh day of the Hebrew week, and lasted from sunset on Friday to sunset on Saturday. That day is still observed by the Jews. A consideration of early church history suggests that the day of Christ's resurrection, the first day of the week, grew up, coupled with the existence of Christianity itself, as a distinctively Christian festival. It was made to fall in with the injunction of the early church fathers of early Christian history, provided for under special legislation for the observance of the Sabbath. Nevertheless, the idea of the Lord's day is regarded as distinct from that of the Sabbath, which seems to have been likewise observed by the early church fathers of early Christian history, provided for under special legislation for the observance of the Sabbath. Nevertheless, the idea of the Lord's day is regarded as distinct from that of the Sabbath, which seems to have been likewise observed by the early church fathers of early Christian history, provided for under special legislation for the observance of the Sabbath.

Record of Executioner of King Charles First

In connection with the history of King Charles the First, a letter is still in existence written by a notorious Mother Redcap, who lived in a small thatched building on rough ground leading from the Tyburn road over Black Street common to Hamstead, says a writer in the London Times. The legend runs that one wild night she was disturbed by a stranger at her door imploring shelter, as he was a fugitive from justice. After a stormy scene, in which he displayed plenty of money, the old woman consented to admit him. He remained with her some years, when he died. At the inquest one of the doctors declared that he knew the body to be that of the man who had been employed to decapitate King Charles I. Mr. Walter Gyles writes: 'I have not seen the body myself, but I am told that this early concerning the identity of King Charles I's executioner may be found, as a marginal note, in the burial register of St. Mary's, Whitechapel.' This Richard Brandon received £30 for the job, which was paid in five guineas within an hour after the execution had taken place; he took an orange stuck with cloves and a handkerchief from the king's pocket and sold the former article to a gentleman for 10s.

Gladstone Cited as "Excellent" in D.bate

It is certain that Gladstone moved the house to long and hearty laughter, and that in private life, if he was among his own family or with intimate friends, he could be exceedingly amusing, playful and full of fun. But the fact is that he was apt, whether in private or public, to be too much and too earnestly interested in the subject of conversation to be inclined to treat it jocosely or even humorously.

Barbados Hurricane Most Disastrous Records Show

The so-called Barbados hurricane was the second of three severe tropical cyclones that visited the West Indies in October of 1780, and is generally accounted the most disastrous (except of modern times). Approaching Barbados from the southwest on October 10, the storm swept over the Lesser Antilles and Porto Rico, and then reached the northeast, passing east of Bermuda. Its course was fully traced many years afterward by Colonel Reid, a pioneer student of cyclones, through information obtained in the logs of the many British and French warships that were, at the time of the storm, engaged in hostilities in West Indian waters. The devastation wrought was appalling. Every house in Barbados was destroyed. 9,000 lives were lost in Marigot, 6,000 in St. Lucia, 4,000 to 5,000 in St. Bassett and other islands in other islands, while the loss of life at sea was even greater than on land.

Court Room Etiquette

There was an amusing scene at a Swiss Palais de Justice, when a number of persons charged with various offenses came up for trial. The first was acquitted but the justices fined him heavily because he was not wearing a collar. His lawyer stated that he had to send his client to get shaved before entering the court. On hearing the fine announced a number of other delinquents rushed from the court to buy collars in neighboring shops. They all returned looking very relieved but unfortunately they had omitted to buy neckties. They were admonished by the justices, who said that in future anyone appearing in court in this fashion would be severely dealt with.—Montreal Herald.

Mental Clinic

A mental clinic will be held by the St. Lawrence State Hospital at the Alice Hyde Hospital in Malone, on Tuesday, May 8th from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m. The clinic will be conducted by Dr. P. C. Lylyer, clinical director, and Mrs. Clara E. Edgeworth, social worker. Since it is held for the purpose of promoting mental health, those who desire advice concerning themselves or their friends should consult the clinic physician. The clinic interviews are entirely confidential. No fee is charged.

Methodist Episcopal Churches

Rev. Harold A. Thomas, St. Regis Falls.

Sunday: 10:30 A. M. Sunday School. 11:00 A. M. Worship. 8:30 P. M. Epworth League.

Tuesday: 7:30 P. M. Boy Scout Meeting. Wednesday 7:30 p. m. Prayer Service Dickinson Center.

Sunday: 9:30 A. M. Sunday School. 9:45 A. M. Worship. Thursday: 7:30 P. M. Prayer Service.

Holiness Movement Church St. Regis Falls, N. Y. Rev. R. N. Rycroft, Pastor. Hours of Services.

Lord's Day: Sunday School 9:45 a. m. Morning Worship 10:30 a. m. Evening Worship 7:30 P. M. Prayer service Tuesday evening at 7:30 P. M. Prayer service this (Friday) evening at the home of Mrs. Fred Douglas.

Man's Heart Stopped, Stomach Gas Cause

W. L. Adams was blotted so with gas that his heart often missed beats after eating. Adierick told him of his gas, and how he eats anything and feels fine. Joseph E. Wardner, Druggist.

Notice to Creditors

All persons having claims against J. Alfred Farmer, late of Fauset, N. Y., deceased, are required to present the same with proper vouchers therefor to the undersigned administrators, at the office of Francis H. Sinker, Tupper Lake, N. Y., on or before October 1st, 1933. Dated December 17th, 1932. HAZEL SWANQUIST, Executrix.

Eskimo Traders Now Use Up-to-Date Schooners

When an Eskimo family which has been trading along the shores of the Arctic ocean for generations sought a name for their new schooner, they chose to honor a pioneer automobile manufacturer. The trading schooner was built in Edmonton. The schooner has an auxiliary engine for use in backing adverse winds.

Queen Not Favorably Impressed by Carlyle

The human hand is not wanting in the letters and journals of Queen Victoria, who was a woman of much independence of spirit and clarity of thought, writes Doris Kitt in the Victorian (R. C.) Column. "Thus, in 1838, we learn that she was indeed the dumpy of Westminster to meet certain writers of renown, among them Mr. Carlyle, the historian, a strange-looking, eccentric old Scotsman, who holds forth in a drawing, melancholy voice with a broad Scotch accent, upon Scotland and upon the other departments of everything. Sir C. and Lady Lyell, he an old acquaintance, most agreeable, and she very pleasant, and Mr. Browning, the poet, a very agreeable man. It was at first very shy work speaking to them, but afterwards they were very agreeable and talked very entertainingly."

Settles Down at 150

The first 150 years are the wildest for an elephant, according to Siam, once the most stupor-beast in captivity, observes a writer in the Montreal Herald, and Paris, where life is reputed to be wild, wants Siam back because he is wild no more. One hundred years ago Napoleon took him from Egypt to Paris. Siam was so unimpressed that Napoleon gave the best to Emperor Francis II of Austria. In Schochubrunn, Siam made himself a nuisance, and Franz Joseph finally gave him to the City of Budapest, where he still remains. Siam became tame and now even earns a good living. He begs money from spectators at the zoo and hands the coin over to the keeper.

Small Ships Best Fighters

There is a common notion that large war vessels, such as cruisers armed with eight inch guns, are of more or less aggressive, while smaller vessels armed with no more than six inch guns are defensive. As a matter of fact the most aggressive vessels during more than a hundred years have been the small vessels, according to "Social Science Abstracts" which discloses statistics from 1,000 perihelions. "Statistically, the small vessels are a greater nuisance than the very large vessels; furthermore, the endurance of a single vessel is not very important because a fleet is no more enduring than its smallest cruiser or destroyer."

R. R. Bridge Across Tops of Trees

A railway runs across the tops of trees in California. At a spot near the coast there is a deep ravine, over which a way for the trains had to be made. To build a bridge of stone or steel, too costly, so it was determined to utilize the trees. The top branches were cut off at the level of the banks and the timbers for the line were laid on the stumps. This railway bridge is said to be quite safe.—London Tit-Bits.

Mongolia

Mongolia is a vast tableland in Central Asia, the traditional home of the Mongol peoples, and formerly was a definite part of the Chinese empire. Now it is divided into two distinct cultural and political entities—Inner Mongolia, which is becoming absorbed into China, and Outer Mongolia, a republic in close relations with the Russian Soviet federation.

School Meeting Notice

Notice is hereby given that the annual district school meeting of the inhabitants of Central Rural School District No. One of the Towns of Dickinson and Waverly, Franklin County, New York, qualified to vote as school meetings, will be held in the school auditorium on Tuesday evening, May 2, 1933, at 7:30 o'clock P. M. for the purpose of making the necessary appropriations for the coming school year, for the election of one member of the board of education, (trustee) and to transact such other business as is authorized to be transacted at an annual meeting under the provisions of the education law.

The following is an estimated statement of the money necessary to be raised by taxation for school purposes for the coming school year, inclusive of public moneys, to wit: For teachers' salaries, $25,548.22

Table with 2 columns: Item and Amount. Items include: Grant officer & census 375.00, fuel 1,378.74, janitor service 1,774.65, light and power 387.70, insurance 2,887.68, board payment 2,000.00, interest 6,124.00, library 250.00, medical inspection 275.00, transportation 5,819.00, miscellaneous 1,250.00, maintenance 1,250.00, equipment and repairs to Guide Board School 300.00. Total $48,708.18

By reason of state aid and unexpended balance $42,288.10 Amount to be raised by tax $6,500.00 Dated April 6, 1933.

Signed, J. E. WARDNER, Pres. F. M. GREEN, Vice-Pres. E. C. TRIPPENY, ORVILLE H. BUTLER, HENRY H. THOMPSON.

Not Guilty

Robert dislikes to be put to bed and the event usually is preceded by tears. A neighbor who heard of his own case when she heard crying at his home the previous night. He replied: "Oh, that waddy-daddy-he's always crying."—Napoleon News.

Showering Their Business

When winter comes and the ground is covered with a deep blanket of snow, the Norwegian soldier is not called upon to strap his heavy knapsack on his back and wade through the drifts up to his boot tops. He simply is handed a pair of skis and ordered to have a good time. The mountainous regions of Norway lend themselves admirably to the sport of skiing, and skilful ski riders and ski jumpers are developed within the land of the fjords. Norwegian infantry practice maneuvers on skis every winter, near Oslo.

Shower

"What's up?" "We are giving Mabel a silk shower." "I'll take an umbrella."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Put Him on the Spot

Wife—Wake up, John, wake up! There's a burglar in the next room. Husband—Well, I've no revolver. You go in and look daggers at him.—Tit-Bits.

Big Round Up

"I understand your wife came from a fine old family." "Name is hardly the word—she brought it with her."—Laughs Magazine.

Had Its Uses

Visitor—Do you like reciting dandy child Oh no; I hate it, really. But mummy only makes me do it when she wants people to go.—Stray Stories.

Too True

"Why are you so late?" "I fell downstairs." "Well, that shouldn't have taken you long."—Cannons Magazine.

WANTS.

WANTS OF ALL KINDS, FOR SALE, TO RENT, AND SHORT NOTICES OF ALL KINDS, INSERTED UNDER THIS HEADING AT ONE CENT A WORD EACH INSERTION. CASH TO ACCOMPANY THE ORDER. NO NOTICE RECEIVED FOR LESS THAN 10 CENTS.

NOTICE—Seed Order for sale. H. N. Rainswell, Dickinson Center, N. Y.

TRY A WANT AD.—In this column. One cent a word each insertion pays the bill.

FOR SALE—Carbon Paper for typewriter use, at the Adirondack News office.

PHOTO BOARD, card board, cover paper, blotting paper, typewriter paper at this office.

Unique Collection of Epic Poems Preserved

The second edition of the oldest book of poems in the English language has recently appeared. The first edition, which consisted of one volume only, came out 1,300 years ago.

This is the "Exeter Book" which has, for centuries, been kept in Exeter cathedral. According to legend the book was compiled at the order of King Alfred, who caused the monks to collect in one great volume all the old poems of England. Such epic poems were sung by minstrels and handed down from father to son. To write them was rare indeed. Consequently the original Exeter book, which consists of 262 pages of beautifully hand-written and illuminated manuscript—is unique.

The book was taken out of Exeter cathedral for the first time in nearly 1,000 years to be brought to London for the preparation of the second edition. This is limited to 250 copies. For the book is not printed; each of the original pages is reproduced by a special photographic process, and the whole is bound in buckram blocked in gold.—London Mail.

Mutton Birds Estimate Time

From Sydney, Australia, comes word that the mutton birds, (wooly-tailed petrels) which vacation at Phillip Island, Victoria, have a remarkable sense of time and year after year residents of the island await their annual migration from Siberia expectantly and each time the birds put in their appearance on the same day.

Pure Oxygen

Pure oxygen, except under pressure, is not harmful to the human body. Those experimenters who are engaged in energy metabolism studies, in which oxygen with little air is consumed for a period of from 10 to 15 minutes, will welcome this opinion of a doctor writing for Hygeia Magazine.

"Lanterns of the Dead"

About halfway on the road from Angers to Poitiers, in France, one comes upon the old town of Fontevault, which is famous only for an ancient abbey, where English kings have wished they could be buried, but for a fine example of those once mystifying lanterns of the dead, lanterns de morts. The purpose of these tall stone funereal lanterns, built like inland light-houses, is not known until a few years ago a passage was found in the writings of Peter the Venerable, a Nineteenth century abbot of Cluny, revealing that they were lit in homage to the dead Christians. Most of them date from the Eleventh century.

Mixed

A farewell party was being given to one of the staff of a big store who was starting in business on his own. The manager presided, but he was not accustomed to public speaking. Beginning his speech, he said: "Ladies and gentlemen—Our young friend is about to paddle his own canoe—let us hope—he will have a level road all the way, and the—encourage to overcome the mountains of difficulty—he will meet, so that he may climb to the top of the ladder—that others will follow in his footsteps."—London Tit-Bits.

Not Guilty

Robert dislikes to be put to bed and the event usually is preceded by tears. A neighbor who heard of his own case when she heard crying at his home the previous night. He replied: "Oh, that waddy-daddy-he's always crying."—Napoleon News.

Showering Their Business

When winter comes and the ground is covered with a deep blanket of snow, the Norwegian soldier is not called upon to strap his heavy knapsack on his back and wade through the drifts up to his boot tops. He simply is handed a pair of skis and ordered to have a good time. The mountainous regions of Norway lend themselves admirably to the sport of skiing, and skilful ski riders and ski jumpers are developed within the land of the fjords. Norwegian infantry practice maneuvers on skis every winter, near Oslo.

Shower

"What's up?" "We are giving Mabel a silk shower." "I'll take an umbrella."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Put Him on the Spot

Wife—Wake up, John, wake up! There's a burglar in the next room. Husband—Well, I've no revolver. You go in and look daggers at him.—Tit-Bits.

Big Round Up

"I understand your wife came from a fine old family." "Name is hardly the word—she brought it with her."—Laughs Magazine.

Had Its Uses

Visitor—Do you like reciting dandy child Oh no; I hate it, really. But mummy only makes me do it when she wants people to go.—Stray Stories.

Too True

"Why are you so late?" "I fell downstairs." "Well, that shouldn't have taken you long."—Cannons Magazine.

WANTS.

WANTS OF ALL KINDS, FOR SALE, TO RENT, AND SHORT NOTICES OF ALL KINDS, INSERTED UNDER THIS HEADING AT ONE CENT A WORD EACH INSERTION. CASH TO ACCOMPANY THE ORDER. NO NOTICE RECEIVED FOR LESS THAN 10 CENTS.

NOTICE—Seed Order for sale. H. N. Rainswell, Dickinson Center, N. Y.

TRY A WANT AD.—In this column. One cent a word each insertion pays the bill.

FOR SALE—Carbon Paper for typewriter use, at the Adirondack News office.

PHOTO BOARD, card board, cover paper, blotting paper, typewriter paper at this office.

Unique Collection of Epic Poems Preserved

The second edition of the oldest book of poems in the English language has recently appeared. The first edition, which consisted of one volume only, came out 1,300 years ago.

This is the "Exeter Book" which has, for centuries, been kept in Exeter cathedral. According to legend the book was compiled at the order of King Alfred, who caused the monks to collect in one great volume all the old poems of England. Such epic poems were sung by minstrels and handed down from father to son. To write them was rare indeed. Consequently the original Exeter book, which consists of 262 pages of beautifully hand-written and illuminated manuscript—is unique.

The book was taken out of Exeter cathedral for the first time in nearly 1,000 years to be brought to London for the preparation of the second edition. This is limited to 250 copies. For the book is not printed; each of the original pages is reproduced by a special photographic process, and the whole is bound in buckram blocked in gold.—London Mail.

Mutton Birds Estimate Time

From Sydney, Australia, comes word that the mutton birds, (wooly-tailed petrels) which vacation at Phillip Island, Victoria, have a remarkable sense of time and year after year residents of the island await their annual migration from Siberia expectantly and each time the birds put in their appearance on the same day.

Pure Oxygen

Pure oxygen, except under pressure, is not harmful to the human body. Those experimenters who are engaged in energy metabolism studies, in which oxygen with little air is consumed for a period of from 10 to 15 minutes, will welcome this opinion of a doctor writing for Hygeia Magazine.

"Lanterns of the Dead"

About halfway on the road from Angers to Poitiers, in France, one comes upon the old town of Fontevault, which is famous only for an ancient abbey, where English kings have wished they could be buried, but for a fine example of those once mystifying lanterns of the dead, lanterns de morts. The purpose of these tall stone funereal lanterns, built like inland light-houses, is not known until a few years ago a passage was found in the writings of Peter the Venerable, a Nineteenth century abbot of Cluny, revealing that they were lit in homage to the dead Christians. Most of them date from the Eleventh century.

Mixed

A farewell party was being given to one of the staff of a big store who was starting in business on his own. The manager presided, but he was not accustomed to public speaking. Beginning his speech, he said: "Ladies and gentlemen—Our young friend is about to paddle his own canoe—let us hope—he will have a level road all the way, and the—encourage to overcome the mountains of difficulty—he will meet, so that he may climb to the top of the ladder—that others will follow in his footsteps."—London Tit-Bits.

Not Guilty

Robert dislikes to be put to bed and the event usually is preceded by tears. A neighbor who heard of his own case when she heard crying at his home the previous night. He replied: "Oh, that waddy-daddy-he's always crying."—Napoleon News.

Showering Their Business

When winter comes and the ground is covered with a deep blanket of snow, the Norwegian soldier is not called upon to strap his heavy knapsack on his back and wade through the drifts up to his boot tops. He simply is handed a pair of skis and ordered to have a good time. The mountainous regions of Norway lend themselves admirably to the sport of skiing, and skilful ski riders and ski jumpers are developed within the land of the fjords. Norwegian infantry practice maneuvers on skis every winter, near Oslo.

Shower

"What's up?" "We are giving Mabel a silk shower." "I'll take an umbrella."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Put Him on the Spot