Marcella Coupal of Champlain, Constance and Mark Pettigrew of and their husbands, Shirley and Decato Brothers in Champlain charge of arrangements. Cards may be sent to P.O. Box 84 Treal, Mrs. Carmen Towne of Douglas, Neb.; five sons and Badger of Houston, Texas, and Hebert of Barre, Vt.; and a Clintonville. Dec. 14, 1995, at her home in Burial will be in the parish cemetery in the spring.

Madeline E. (Barber) LaRock, of Plattsburgh; a daughter, Marguerite Dorsev. He is survived by his wife, Arthur Facteau of Plattsburgh; and a sister, Marjorie C. O'Connell, 92, of Malone and George Gleason of Plattsburgh. A brother, Ernest Gleason, and two grandchildren, Doreen and 1945. She was a communicant of St. John's Church in celebrated Monday at 9:30 a.m. She graduated from Plattsburgh Department.

Marie T. O'Connor, who died Tuesday, Dec. 14, at St. Matthew's Church in Ellenburg, was held at the Westport Federated Church Monday at 11 a.m. Contributions may be made to the Westport Library Association or to the Westport Senior Center.

Marguerite C. O'Connell, 92, of Malone and George Gleason of Plattsburgh. She was a Franklin County Law Librarian until retiring in 1968. She was a member of the Clinton County Shade Department.

Mrs. O'Connell was Clinton County's first woman Supervisor of Music and a member of the 1965-1969 undefeated community during his service.

Mr. O'Connell was taught to play the violin and was a member of the Clinton County School Orchestra. He served as medical director at the Saranac Memorial Hospital, and was a member of the Upper Peninsula Medical Group. He established a medical practice. In addition to his 26 years as a practicing physician, he also served as medical director at the United States Education Department.

Onslow Gordon III, Westport physician, civic leader, dies

Onslow Gordon III, of Westport, was born Oct. 14, 1945, in New York City and then as a nurse for 17 years in New York, Illinois. She was a member of the Wilcox & Regan Funeral Home Chapel of America. A Mass of Christian burial will be held at the Funeral Home Chapel of America. A Mass of Christian burial will be held at the Westport Federated Church Monday at 11 a.m. Contributions may be made to the Westport Library Association or to the Westport Senior Center.

Marguerite C. O'Connell, 92, of Malone and George Gleason of Plattsburgh. She was a Franklin County Law Librarian until retiring in 1968. She was a member of the Clinton County Shade Department.

Mrs. O'Connell was Clinton County's first woman Supervisor of Music and a member of the Clinton County Shade Department.

Mr. O'Connell was taught to play the violin and was a member of the Clinton County School Orchestra. He served as medical director at the Saranac Memorial Hospital, and was a member of the Upper Peninsula Medical Group. He established a medical practice. In addition to his 26 years as a practicing physician, he also served as medical director at the United States Education Department.

Onslow Gordon III, Westport physician, civic leader, dies

Onslow Gordon III, of Westport, was born Oct. 14, 1945, in New York City and then as a nurse for 17 years in New York, Illinois. She was a member of the Wilcox & Regan Funeral Home Chapel of America. A Mass of Christian burial will be held at the Funeral Home Chapel of America. A Mass of Christian burial will be held at the Westport Federated Church Monday at 11 a.m. Contributions may be made to the Westport Library Association or to the Westport Senior Center.

Marguerite C. O'Connell, 92, of Malone and George Gleason of Plattsburgh. She was a Franklin County Law Librarian until retiring in 1968. She was a member of the Clinton County Shade Department.

Mrs. O'Connell was Clinton County's first woman Supervisor of Music and a member of the Clinton County Shade Department.

Mr. O'Connell was taught to play the violin and was a member of the Clinton County School Orchestra. He served as medical director at the Saranac Memorial Hospital, and was a member of the Upper Peninsula Medical Group. He established a medical practice. In addition to his 26 years as a practicing physician, he also served as medical director at the United States Education Department.

Onslow Gordon III, Westport physician, civic leader, dies

Onslow Gordon III, of Westport, was born Oct. 14, 1945, in New York City and then as a nurse for 17 years in New York, Illinois. She was a member of the Wilcox & Regan Funeral Home Chapel of America. A Mass of Christian burial will be held at the Funeral Home Chapel of America. A Mass of Christian burial will be held at the Westport Federated Church Monday at 11 a.m. Contributions may be made to the Westport Library Association or to the Westport Senior Center.

Marguerite C. O'Connell, 92, of Malone and George Gleason of Plattsburgh. She was a Franklin County Law Librarian until retiring in 1968. She was a member of the Clinton County Shade Department.

Mrs. O'Connell was Clinton County's first woman Supervisor of Music and a member of the Clinton County Shade Department.

Mr. O'Connell was taught to play the violin and was a member of the Clinton County School Orchestra. He served as medical director at the Saranac Memorial Hospital, and was a member of the Upper Peninsula Medical Group. He established a medical practice. In addition to his 26 years as a practicing physician, he also served as medical director at the United States Education Department.

Onslow Gordon III, Westport physician, civic leader, dies

Onslow Gordon III, of Westport, was born Oct. 14, 1945, in New York City and then as a nurse for 17 years in New York, Illinois. She was a member of the Wilcox & Regan Funeral Home Chapel of America. A Mass of Christian burial will be held at the Funeral Home Chapel of America. A Mass of Christian burial will be held at the Westport Federated Church Monday at 11 a.m. Contributions may be made to the Westport Library Association or to the Westport Senior Center.

Marguerite C. O'Connell, 92, of Malone and George Gleason of Plattsburgh. She was a Franklin County Law Librarian until retiring in 1968. She was a member of the Clinton County Shade Department.

Mrs. O'Connell was Clinton County's first woman Supervisor of Music and a member of the Clinton County Shade Department.

Mr. O'Connell was taught to play the violin and was a member of the Clinton County School Orchestra. He served as medical director at the Saranac Memorial Hospital, and was a member of the Upper Peninsula Medical Group. He established a medical practice. In addition to his 26 years as a practicing physician, he also served as medical director at the United States Education Department.

Onslow Gordon III, Westport physician, civic leader, dies

Onslow Gordon III, of Westport, was born Oct. 14, 1945, in New York City and then as a nurse for 17 years in New York, Illinois. She was a member of the Wilcox & Regan Funeral Home Chapel of America. A Mass of Christian burial will be held at the Funeral Home Chapel of America. A Mass of Christian burial will be held at the Westport Federated Church Monday at 11 a.m. Contributions may be made to the Westport Library Association or to the Westport Senior Center.

Marguerite C. O'Connell, 92, of Malone and George Gleason of Plattsburgh. She was a Franklin County Law Librarian until retiring in 1968. She was a member of the Clinton County Shade Department.

Mrs. O'Connell was Clinton County's first woman Supervisor of Music and a member of the Clinton County Shade Department.

Mr. O'Connell was taught to play the violin and was a member of the Clinton County School Orchestra. He served as medical director at the Saranac Memorial Hospital, and was a member of the Upper Peninsula Medical Group. He established a medical practice. In addition to his 26 years as a practicing physician, he also served as medical director at the United States Education Department.

Onslow Gordon III, Westport physician, civic leader, dies

Onslow Gordon III, of Westport, was born Oct. 14, 1945, in New York City and then as a nurse for 17 years in New York, Illinois. She was a member of the Wilcox & Regan Funeral Home Chapel of America. A Mass of Christian burial will be held at the Funeral Home Chapel of America. A Mass of Christian burial will be held at the Westport Federated Church Monday at 11 a.m. Contributions may be made to the Westport Library Association or to the Westport Senior Center.

Marguerite C. O'Connell, 92, of Malone and George Gleason of Plattsburgh. She was a Franklin County Law Librarian until retiring in 1968. She was a member of the Clinton County Shade Department.

Mrs. O'Connell was Clinton County's first woman Supervisor of Music and a member of the Clinton County Shade Department.

Mr. O'Connell was taught to play the violin and was a member of the Clinton County School Orchestra. He served as medical director at the Saranac Memorial Hospital, and was a member of the Upper Peninsula Medical Group. He established a medical practice. In addition to his 26 years as a practicing physician, he also served as medical director at the United States Education Department.

Onslow Gordon III, Westport physician, civic leader, dies

Onslow Gordon III, of Westport, was born Oct. 14, 1945, in New York City and then as a nurse for 17 years in New York, Illinois. She was a member of the Wilcox & Regan Funeral Home Chapel of America. A Mass of Christian burial will be held at the Funeral Home Chapel of America. A Mass of Christian burial will be held at the Westport Federated Church Monday at 11 a.m. Contributions may be made to the Westport Library Association or to the Westport Senior Center.

Marguerite C. O'Connell, 92, of Malone and George Gleason of Plattsburgh. She was a Franklin County Law Librarian until retiring in 1968. She was a member of the Clinton County Shade Department.

Mrs. O'Connell was Clinton County's first woman Supervisor of Music and a member of the Clinton County Shade Department.

Mr. O'Connell was taught to play the violin and was a member of the Clinton County School Orchestra. He served as medical director at the Saranac Memorial Hospital, and was a member of the Upper Peninsula Medical Group. He established a medical practice. In addition to his 26 years as a practicing physician, he also served as medical director at the United States Education Department.

Onslow Gordon III, Westport physician, civic leader, dies

Onslow Gordon III, of Westport, was born Oct. 14, 1945, in New York City and then as a nurse for 17 years in New York, Illinois. She was a member of the Wilcox & Regan Funeral Home Chapel of America. A Mass of Christian burial will be held at the Funeral Home Chapel of America. A Mass of Christian burial will be held at the Westport Federated Church Monday at 11 a.m. Contributions may be made to the Westport Library Association or to the Westport Senior Center.

Marguerite C. O'Connell, 92, of Malone and George Gleason of Plattsburgh. She was a Franklin County Law Librarian until retiring in 1968. She was a member of the Clinton County Shade Department.

Mrs. O'Connell was Clinton County's first woman Supervisor of Music and a member of the Clinton County Shade Department.

Mr. O'Connell was taught to play the violin and was a member of the Clinton County School Orchestra. He served as medical director at the Saranac Memorial Hospital, and was a member of the Upper Peninsula Medical Group. He established a medical practice. In addition to his 26 years as a practicing physician, he also served as medical director at the United States Education Department.