Couple Honored on Anniversary

by Louise Benedict

- A 25th Wedding Anniversary was held at American Legion, Hogansburg, N.Y., on Saturday, November 11. It was celebrated for Mr. and Mrs. Harry (Margaret) Pyke of St. Regis Rd., Hogansburg. They were married 25 years ago on Nov. 8, at St. Regis Parish Church, St. Regis, Que. The ceremony was officiated by late Father Bourget. The maid of honor was Louise Benedict and best man was Peter Cook.

About 150 guests were served a delicious supper about 7 o'clock. After which dancing was enjoyed. They received many beautiful gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Pyke have six children, 3 girls and 3 boys and one grandchild. Mr. Pyke is employed at Massena Aluminum Plant of Massena, N.Y.

The Right to Read Program

The Right to Read Program at the Akwesasne Library and Cultural Center has been having classes since October 30. If you are interested in attending please notify us at 358-2980 or 358-2980 at the Center, or we can be reached at home at 328-4799 or 358-4882.

Otawa Students visit reserve

55 students of De Roy Kennedy School of Ottawa, Ontario visited St. Regis Reservation on Monday Nov. 10. They had their lunch at St. Regis Council Hall at St. Regis, Que; from there they visited St. Regis Parish Church, St. Regis Village School and the Lacrosse Factory at Cornwall Island, Ont. They are being taught Indian Culture so they enjoyed visiting and communicating with the Indian people.

Mr. Jim Powless, Indian Liaison Officer of Dept. of Indian Affairs, Ottawa, Ont. was with the group. Mr. Ernie Benedict, also Liaison Officer of Dept. of Indian Affairs, took them to the reservation.

Mr. Jim Powless, Indian Liaison Officer of Dept. of Indian Affairs, Ottawa, Ont. was with the group. Mr. Ernie Benedict, also Liaison Officer of Dept. of Indian Affairs, took them to the reservation.

ABOUT 150 GUESTS WERE SERVED A DELICIOUS SUPPER ABOUT 7 O'CLOCK. AFTER WHICH DANCING WAS ENJOYED. THEY RECEIVED MANY BEAUTIFUL GIFTS.

Mr. and Mrs. Pyke have six children, 3 girls and 3 boys and one grandchild. Mr. Pyke is employed at Massena Aluminum Plant of Massena, N.Y.

The Right to Read Program

The Right to Read Program at the Akwesasne Library and Cultural Center has been having classes since October 30. If you are interested in attending please notify us at 358-2980 or 358-2980 at the Center, or we can be reached at home at 328-4799 or 358-4882.

Otawa Students visit reserve

55 students of De Roy Kennedy School of Ottawa, Ontario visited St. Regis Reservation on Monday Nov. 10. They had their lunch at St. Regis Council Hall at St. Regis, Que; from there they visited St. Regis Parish Church, St. Regis Village School and the Lacrosse Factory at Cornwall Island, Ont. They are being taught Indian Culture so they enjoyed visiting and communicating with the Indian people.

Mr. Jim Powless, Indian Liaison Officer of Dept. of Indian Affairs, Ottawa, Ont. was with the group. Mr. Ernie Benedict, also Liaison Officer of Dept. of Indian Affairs, took them to the reservation.

Mr. Jim Powless, Indian Liaison Officer of Dept. of Indian Affairs, Ottawa, Ont. was with the group. Mr. Ernie Benedict, also Liaison Officer of Dept. of Indian Affairs, took them to the reservation.

ABOUT 150 GUESTS WERE SERVED A DELICIOUS SUPPER ABOUT 7 O'CLOCK. AFTER WHICH DANCING WAS ENJOYED. THEY RECEIVED MANY BEAUTIFUL GIFTS.

Mr. and Mrs. Pyke have six children, 3 girls and 3 boys and one grandchild. Mr. Pyke is employed at Massena Aluminum Plant of Massena, N.Y.

The Right to Read Program

The Right to Read Program at the Akwesasne Library and Cultural Center has been having classes since October 30. If you are interested in attending please notify us at 358-2980 or 358-2980 at the Center, or we can be reached at home at 328-4799 or 358-4882.

Otawa Students visit reserve

55 students of De Roy Kennedy School of Ottawa, Ontario visited St. Regis Reservation on Monday Nov. 10. They had their lunch at St. Regis Council Hall at St. Regis, Que; from there they visited St. Regis Parish Church, St. Regis Village School and the Lacrosse Factory at Cornwall Island, Ont. They are being taught Indian Culture so they enjoyed visiting and communicating with the Indian people.

Mr. Jim Powless, Indian Liaison Officer of Dept. of Indian Affairs, Ottawa, Ont. was with the group. Mr. Ernie Benedict, also Liaison Officer of Dept. of Indian Affairs, took them to the reservation.

Mr. Jim Powless, Indian Liaison Officer of Dept. of Indian Affairs, Ottawa, Ont. was with the group. Mr. Ernie Benedict, also Liaison Officer of Dept. of Indian Affairs, took them to the reservation.

ABOUT 150 GUESTS WERE SERVED A DELICIOUS SUPPER ABOUT 7 O'CLOCK. AFTER WHICH DANCING WAS ENJOYED. THEY RECEIVED MANY BEAUTIFUL GIFTS.

Mr. and Mrs. Pyke have six children, 3 girls and 3 boys and one grandchild. Mr. Pyke is employed at Massena Aluminum Plant of Massena, N.Y.