

PLAN OBSERVANCE OF MEMORIAL DAY

Plans to Hear Patriotic Address at Senator Hill in Pavilion at Ideal Park

Plans are under way for an observance of Memorial Day which shall be in keeping with the spirit of the nation at one of the most critical times in its history.

N. Peterson, commander of White Post, No. 350, G. A. R., announced today that the Post would hold exercises in the pavilion at Ideal Park, Senator William H. Hill making the principal address. The veterans will first place flowers on the graves of their departed comrades and then march to the pavilion. The Sons of Veterans will join with them in the exercises. An invitation has been issued by the Post to the Patriotic Order of the Sons of America and to all other organizations and individuals who may desire to take part.

The Post also desires that proper observance of the day shall be made in the churches and schools.

On Sunday evening, May 27, special services will be held in the Methodist Episcopal church at Johnson City. A patriotic address will be delivered and the main part of the auditorium will be reserved for the veterans and other patriotic organizations.

In both the shoe towns business will be suspended during Memorial Day. The factories will close, as well as all stores, except those selling provisions, which will remain open until 9 o'clock a. m.

PRUSSIA IS AN ARMY—

Prussia is an Army
Prussia is a fool
To think an army can replace
Divinities who rule.

Prussia is an Army
A mass of maddened men
Uncle Sam must lead them back
To sanity again.

Prussia is an Army
And does it hope to make
The children of a promised land
Subjects of them to make?

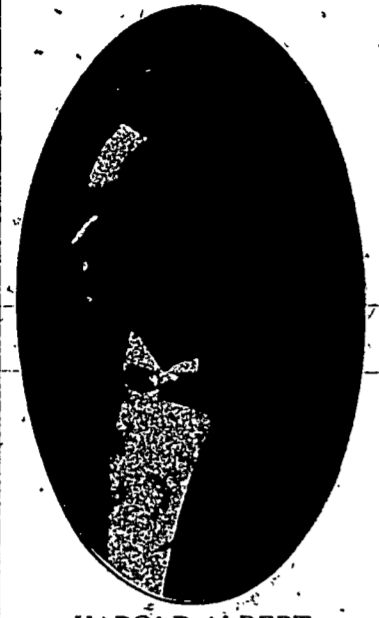

Prussia is an Army
An army with a crown
Taught to turn the ten commandments
And the sermon down.

Prussia is an Army
An army most unjust
To sacrifice the lives of them
Who pray—in God we trust.

AT THE ARMORY

The first week of the Jos. W. Payton Stock Co. was notable for many things, but the point which must be covered most generously is the fact that this organization has given presentations at the Armory all during this week which have been of exceptionally high standard. Not only is the company good individually, but every play has its own complete scenic production. They will start their second week's engagement which is also their last week, with Monday matinee, offering the society comedy, "The Wo-

PATRIOTIC NUMBERS AT SUNDAY CONCERT

National Hymns of U. S. and their Allies to be Sung by Their Followers

A patriotic program has been arranged for Sunday afternoon's concert at Community Hall. The color squad from Company H will give a drill and various local vocalists will sing the national airs of the allied countries with whom America has joined in the present world struggle. Fred Hobart of the First Regiment band will sing the "Star Spangled Banner," and J. Fryse Lloyd will also sing the French and English national hymns. The orchestra numbers will all be patriotic selections and the instrumental solos, as well as the vocal, will be patriotic in nature. The hall will be profusely decorated with the Stars and Stripes and the flags of the allied powers. Everything is being done that will serve to make this the greatest patriotic concert of the season. As far as possible the songs will be rendered by a native of the land they represent. Mr. Lloyd is an Englishman, Mr. Barrett is from Wales and Mr. Glorno is a native of Italy. It is needless to mention Fred Hobart in this connection. Another feature will be the cornet solo by Arthur Andrews of Battery C, "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean."

The complete program is as follows: "Stars and Stripes," orchestra; "America Needs You," baritone solo, Frank Rahlily of Battery C; "American Republic," orchestra; "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean," cornet solo, Arthur Andrews, Marsellaise, J. Fryse Lloyd; Garibaldi's War Hymn, Vincent Glorno; God Save the King, J. Fryse Lloyd; Men of Harlech, Robert W. Barrett; Russian Hymn; "The Mapleleaf"; "Star Spangled Banner," Fred Hobart and audience, accompanied by orchestra.

AT THE STONE

Joe Winder, crook, confirmed gambler and thief, in the Famous Mystery picture "The Valentine Girl" starring Marguerite Clark on the Paramount Program, steadfastly refused to betray his "chief" to the police until through the terrible grilling of the "third degree" when at length it was wrung from him. What was it that held him from giving this information. Could it have been the thought of the chief's little daughter, Marian (played by Marguerite Clerk)? At any rate, he proved to be a good example of "honor even among thieves" and somehow one cannot feel that he is wholly had at heart. This is merely one of the intensely interesting incidents of "The Valentine Girl," which is the attraction at the Stone Opera House Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week.

The vaudeville features are: Three Millards, a clever comedy musical offering, Finn and Finn, an excellent Comedy Black Face singing specialty and Dunham Edwards Trio—a trio of original comedians.

The feature photodrama for the last half of the week is "The Girl at Home" featuring Jack Pickford and Vivian Martin.
