The Ladies' Home Journal, which has taken a hint from their literary advance magazine publication for their summer reading, has published a number of articles on music for girls, with reference to the musical instructions they are giving. Among these is one on the use of the violin, which is said to be the most popular instrument with girls. The article gives some valuable hints on the proper way to teach the instrument, and how to avoid the common mistakes. It is addressed to parents who are anxious to give their daughters a musical education. The article is followed by a list of the best books on the subject, and a brief notice of some of the most popular pieces for the violin.

A DASTARDLY DEED.

SOLDIERS' HOLIDAY ROBBERY.

James Miller Assailed With a Club.

While Coming Home From His-button House, a Soldier was Attacked and Robbed.

One of the most dastardly and bold crimes that has been committed in this city is the robbery of James Miller, a soldier, who was assaultcd and robbed while coming home from his button house. Miller was on his way home from his button house, when he was attacked by a gang of hooligans, who, after beating him severely, robbed him of all his money and personal effects. The crime was committed in broad daylight, and was witnessed by a large number of persons, who were shocked at the audacity of the robbers. The victim is a soldier, who has been in the service of the country for many years, and is well known for his bravery and courage. The crime is being investigated by the police, who are making every effort to find the criminals.

SIXTY-FOUR MARRIAGES.

Sixty-four Marriages in the Course of the Week.

The marriage certificate of James Miller, a soldier, was issued by the Justice of the Peace of this city, and was signed by the mayor and the aldermen. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a large number of citizens, who were present to witness the union of the couple. The bride and groom were received with much enthusiasm by their friends, who were glad to see them united in marriage. The couple will reside in the city, and will be happy in each other's society.
