

National Conference Being Held At Hungarian Church Here

Delegates From All over U. S. Attend Meetings At Hungarian Presbyterian Church Many Prominent Speakers In Program, Other Events

Florence Ryan Puzzle Winner

Returns Coming in Heavier Than Ever in "Puzzle That Pays" Feature

Try-Its Blank Stranskys 9-0

Local Team Enters Post Season Series with Sensational Victory at Cazenovia Park

Annual City Clerk's Outing Will Include Gala Sports Program

Events Will Take Place Wednesday, August 17, With Many City and County Notables Attending.

Republican Women Organize Here

City and County Officials Attend Formation of Local Martha Washington Club

Visitor Finds Things Move Fast Here

Alleged Culpit in Erie County Jail Few Hours After Stopping Here.

SCHOOL BOARD ELECTS OFFICERS

Nicholas J. Bagin was re-elected president of the Lackawanna School Board at its first meeting following election last Thursday evening.

C. F. U. LODGE HOLDS ANNUAL PICNIC

The annual picnic under the auspices of the Lackawanna English speaking lodge No. 720, C. F. U. was held Sunday, August 7, at Shelton, N. Y.

Table with columns: Name, AB, R, H, E, etc. for baseball players.

DEATHS

Leo Shea, 78 5th St. Anton Ch. p. 647 Rd. R. 60

LACKAWANNA MAN HELD IN BUFFALO

A trip to Buffalo Saturday night brought plenty of grief including a cell in jail to Nicholas Strick, 23 years old, of 528 Wason avenue.

VINKO ZAPANICH

Funeral services for Vinko Zapanich were held at 9.30 a. m. Friday from his late home 78 Fifth street.

Leo Shea Loses Semi-Finals In State Championship Play

Tommy Goodwin, New State Champion, Defeats Local Ace One Up in Stirring Play

Work Relief Under Way

First Group of Men Put to Work Monday, After Lay-off Since May.

Democrats Plan Annual Frolic

Fourth Ward Association Will Hold Annual Outing Sunday August 28.

BIRTHS

Boys were born to Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Szpara, 531 Center St.

STABBING CASE ADJOURNED

An argument arising during the course of a crap game in Lackawanna venue Saturday night resulted in Verriero Houston, 92 Pearl street being taken to Our Lady of Victory hospital for treatment of stab wounds.