Mr. and Mrs. Raymond K. Wicks entertained their family and friends on Christmas Day at a tea in their home on Montauk Avenue, Riverhead. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wells of Riverhead, and their daughter and Mrs. Josephine Wells spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Vernon F. Wells and family.

Archer W. Robinson is suffering from a knee injury which was inflicted by a railroad switch.

The Christmas program of the Methodist Sunday School was held Sunday evening, December 24. Opening hymn; recitation, "This Little Light of Mine," Darcey Little; recitation, "Sing And Be Happy," Primary Class; recitation, "The Angels Sing," Primary Class; recitation, "The Stable," Primary Class; recitation, "The Christmas Story," Jean Richard and the Primary Class; recitation, "The Bells," Primary Class; recitation, "What Did We Get For Christmas?" Pearl Luce, Myra Wray, Pastor's wife, Linda Davis, and Rosalie Latham; recitation, "Santa Claus," Primary Class; presentation of a song, "Christmas Day," Floyd Van Wyk; recitation, "The Bells," Primary Class; recitation, "Sleigh Bells," Myra Wray, Lydia Latham; song, "Sleigh Ride," Ruth Brey and Mary Hurd; presentation of a song, "Sing to Him," Primary Class; recitation, "The Little Snowflakes," Primary Class; presentation of a song, "Sleep Baby Sleep," Marjorie Tabor; recitation, "A Christmas Stocking," with various reciters; recitation, "What Can I Give Mother," Joan Baltrush and Ann Styback; recitation, "Mrs. Demarest's and Owen Tut- bor; recitation, "Carol Sings a velvet with an overdrape of vel­ luteen with a Christmas tree," Mr. and Mrs. Fred Terry entertained the Terry clan at a Christmas dinner on Monday, spent Christmas and several days with Mrs. J. F. Mc- Gregor and family, of Roanoke avenue, Riverhead, Mr. and Mrs. Griswold Conklin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archer Conklin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Perry V. Conklin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horace J. Wells left Tuesday night for a flying trip to Long Island, and Mr. and Mrs. Hallidell W. Wicks, Misses Cecelia Calderon, Eliza­ beth Howell of West Mattituck, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Downs were the hosts of the Wells side of the family on Saturday evening, on which occasion they entertained Mrs. and Mr. C. H. Shivers, in Madison Square. Mr. Wells met his daugh­ ter Estelle there and she accompanied them home to spend her Christmas vacation from Cornell University.

Mrs. Ruby Weston of Westham­pton, New York, and Mrs. Paul Wood gave a tea for their friends and families on Monday evening, December 25. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Shivers, in Madison Square. Mr. Wells met his daugh­ ter Estelle there and she accompanied them home to spend her Christmas vacation from Cornell University.

Mr. and Mrs. Archer Conklin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Perry V. Conklin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archer Conklin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Perry V. Conklin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Downs were the hosts of the Wells side of the family on Saturday evening, on which occasion they entertained Mrs. and Mr. C. H. Shivers, in Madison Square. Mr. Wells met his daugh­ ter Estelle there and she accompanied them home to spend her Christmas vacation from Cornell University.

Mr. and Mrs. Archer Conklin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Perry V. Conklin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archer Conklin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Perry V. Conklin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Downs were the hosts of the Wells side of the family on Saturday evening, on which occasion they entertained Mrs. and Mr. C. H. Shivers, in Madison Square. Mr. Wells met his daugh­ ter Estelle there and she accompanied them home to spend her Christmas vacation from Cornell University.

Mr. and Mrs. Archer Conklin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Perry V. Conklin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archer Conklin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Perry V. Conklin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Downs were the hosts of the Wells side of the family on Saturday evening, on which occasion they entertained Mrs. and Mr. C. H. Shivers, in Madison Square. Mr. Wells met his daugh­

Our gift premium campaign has officially closed but we still have a few of those fine Fountain Pen and Pencils sets, and so long as we last we will continue to give

A SET FREE WITH EACH SUBSCRIPTION

Yes, FREE! You merely pay the regular subscription for the next year—just cover your cost. You will receive hundreds of these beautiful sets and every recipient has been highly pleased.

The Best of Writing Equipment Fully Guaranteed

Come in now if you wish one of these sets as the number is very limited and this offer expires when the last set on hand is given away.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 28, 1939

The W a t c hm a n

Mr. Horace J. Wells left Tuesday night for a flying trip to Long Island, and Mr. and Mrs. Hallidell W. Wicks, Misses Cecelia Calderon, Elizabeth Howell of West Mattituck, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Downs were the hosts of the Wells side of the family on Saturday evening, on which occasion they entertained Mrs. and Mr. C. H. Shivers, in Madison Square. Mr. Wells met his daughter Estelle there and she accompanied them home to spend her Christmas vacation from Cornell University.

Mr. and Mrs. Archer Conklin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Perry V. Conklin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archer Conklin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Perry V. Conklin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Downs were the hosts of the Wells side of the family on Saturday evening, on which occasion they entertained Mrs. and Mr. C. H. Shivers, in Madison Square. Mr. Wells met his daughter Estelle there and she accompanied them home to spend her Christmas vacation from Cornell University.

Mr. and Mrs. Archer Conklin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Perry V. Conklin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archer Conklin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Perry V. Conklin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Downs were the hosts of the Wells side of the family on Saturday evening, on which occasion they entertained Mrs. and Mr. C. H. Shivers, in Madison Square. Mr. Wells met his daughter Estelle there and she accompanied them home to spend her Christmas vacation from Cornell University.

Mr. and Mrs. Archer Conklin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Perry V. Conklin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archer Conklin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Perry V. Conklin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Downs were the hosts of the Wells side of the family on Saturday evening, on which occasion they entertained Mrs. and Mr. C. H. Shivers, in Madison Square. Mr. Wells met his daughter Estelle there and she accompanied them home to spend her Christmas vacation from Cornell University.